Four score. And seven years ago, our fathers brought forth on this continent, a new nation conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now, we are engaged in a great civil war testing whether that nation or any nation so conceived and so dedicated can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But in a larger sense, we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow this ground. The brave men living and dead who struggled here have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract the world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us, that from these honored dead, we take increased devotion to that cause for which they

Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battle-field of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field, as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

But, in a larger sense, we can not dedicate -- we can not consecrate -- we can not hallow -- this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it, far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us -- that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion -- that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain -- that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom -- and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

4年前、7年前、私たちの先祖たちはこの大陸で新しい国を築きました。リバティーで構想され、すべての人は平等に造られるという命題に専念しました。

しかし、もっと大きな意味では、この地を捧げることはできず、奉獻することもできず、神聖化することもできません。生きているか死んでいるかにかかわらず、ここで奮闘してきた勇敢な男たちは、私たちの貧弱な力をはるかに超えて、それを奉獻しました。世界は、私たちがここで言ったことにほとんど気づかず、長く覚えているでしょうが、彼らがここで決めたことを決して忘れることはできません。むしろ、ここで戦った彼らがこれまで崇高に進めてきた未完成の仕事に専念するのは、生きている私たちにとってです。むしろ、この名誉ある死者たちから、彼らが最後の献身を

Four, seven years ago, our ancestors built a new nation on this continent. It was conceived in Liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all people are created equal.

Right now, we are waging a large-scale civil war that is being tested to see if that country, or a nation so well thought out and dedicated, can endure for a long time. We met on the wonderful battlefields of that war. We have come to dedicate part of that land as a final resting place for those who gave their lives here to live in that country. It is entirely appropriate and appropriate for us to do so.

However, in a larger sense, this land cannot be dedicated, it cannot be dedicated, and it cannot be sanctified. The brave men who have struggled here, living or dead, have dedicated it far beyond our meager strength. The world will barely notice and remember what we've said here for a long time, but we'll never forget what they did here. Rather, it is for those of us who are alive to concentrate on the unfinished work that those who fought here have so far advanced loftily. Rather, it is our duty to further
